You might also want to check out the NMCourts.gov Guide-n-File service.

This is a free online service to prepare and populate court documents for filing in person at the Court

Guide & File is an easy-to-use application to help parties representing themselves generate legal documents for certain types of case filings. Much like popular tax preparation software, it guides users through a series of questions to automatically generate New Mexico court forms. These self-guided interviews can be completed anytime, from anywhere.
