NM Center on Law & Poverty COVID-19 Financial Resource Guide

See the Center's website for more information ... "The pandemic and economic crisis have created financial hardships for many New Mexicans. Many families have had difficulty accessing the financial resources available to help meet basic needs. In response, we have created the Financial Resource Guide During COVID-19. ...The guide is a comprehensive source of information about assistance—and New Mexicans' rights to access it—available across the state now and in the future."
